

Consent / Release for interview, taping and/or photography

Choice O&P has a staff photographer who documents the growth of the company by occasionally taking photographs, videos, or interviews with staff, patients, physicians, guests, etc. If you are opposed to having yourself included in any future Choice O&P marketing materials (ie: website, social media, literature), you have the right to request that your image not be utilized in conjunction with our company.

We will not use any images of you without your consent.

I hereby consent to representatives of Choice O&P taping or recording, filming, or photographing me. I understand that this tape, film, photograph, or interview may be available for viewing, publishing or for marketing purposes.

I do NOT consent to representatives of Choice O&P taping or recording, filming, or photographing me. I understand that this tape, film, photograph, or interview may be available for viewing, publishing or for marketing purposes.
